Editorial Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MADISON, Feb. 10, '57.

I have made out, from the bill books of the Senate and Assembly Clerks, the following statement of the condition of business, so far as it may be estimated by the number of bills. It must be considered, however, that the most important bills, in each house are yet to be acted upon.

SENATE BILL BOOKS.

Senate Bills:
Passed Senate	12
On the Table	3
Referred to Committees	50
Indefinitely postponed	2
Ordered Engrossed	10
Killed	1
In General File	16
To Printer	3
Passed both Houses	32
Assembly Bills:
Passed Senate	19
Referred to Committees	15
Indefinitely postponed	1
In General File	1

(A large batch of bills besides these, have been brought in from the Assembly, but no entry is yet made of them.)

ASSEMBLY BILL BOOKS.

Assembly Bills:
On the Table	1
Ordered Engrossed	37
Passed Assembly	62
Referred to Committees	97
In General File	6
Indefinitely postponed	6
To Printer	4
Passed both Houses	21
Senate Bills:
Passed Assembly	36
Ordered Engrossed	8
Referred to Committees	12
Indefinitely postponed	3

The total number of bills introduced in Senate is 136, and in Assembly 234.

The Assembly did a large business yesterday afternoon, passing 36 bills, beside some 8 or 10 memorials, &c., and forwarding a considerable number to an engrossment. I notice in the list of bills none of very general importance, so far as may be judged by their titles.

In Senate this morning, a bill was presented making a city of the thriving village of Berlin, Marquette Co.

Another, providing for the appointment of an Auditor by the Board of Supervisors of Milwaukee county.

A short communication from Chicago, being a Report of the Wisconsin & Lake Superior R. R. Co in reply to a resolution of the Senate, was presented.

A Memorial from the Milwaukee & Mississippi R. R. Co. remonstrating against the proposed extension of the Madison & Watertown R. R. Co. to the Mississippi in Grant Co. was presented.

Both of these documents will doubtless be in the Senate Journal to-morrow morning, and I will forward them for publication.

A resolution was introduced to go into Joint Convention on Monday to elect four Regents of the University.

Among the bills passed in the Senate to-day was the one providing for a vote by the people on the extension of suffrage to colored persons, and also the bill authorizing the consolidation of the Chicago, St. Paul and Fond du Lac R. R. Co. and the Wisconsin and Superior Co., the latter amended variously. The connections with other railroads are amply provided for by an amendment, drawn up with great care. Somehow the Menasha amendment, so strenously contended for, was at the last dropped by those who had contended most earnestly for it. Probably there is some private understanding.

In Assembly this morning, twelve bills were introduced, besides a large number brought in by committees.

There was a resolution, by Mr. Fagan, calling on the Attorney General for an opinion as to the binding force of a certain vote in Washington Co., on the issue of railroad bonds, on sundry towns which voted against the issue.

Mr. Humphrey introduced a bill to vacate the alleys in blocks 37, 117 and 118 in the 5th ward of Milwaukee.

WAUPACCA AGAIN!

Mr. Strong called up the resolution that B. F. Phillips is not entitled to his seat, and moved as an amendment, a copy of the resolution passed yesterday in the other case, except that the name of E. P. Perry is inserted where Markland's name occurred then.

The 1st. Division—that the law of fifty three is a good rule &c, was adopted. And then Mr. Phillips asked that the question on the other division be postponed till to-morrow. On Dr. Cameron's motion, the subject was so postponed. And so the unquiet spirit sleeps till to-morrow, when we shall see what we shall see.

MORE GAS!

A petition was presented this morning by Mr. Taylor, of our city, asking that the new Gas Co. which asks a charter for the west side of the river, be permitted to lay down pipe on the east side of the river. Whatever may be done in relation to this matter, I hope that we shall not have two companies authorized to dig up our streets whenever they like, and make disturbance of them generally.

FOX RIVER VALLEY R. R.

A bill providing for placing this Company upon a sure basis, and for relieving it from building northward to Waukesha, was considered to-day in committee, but was postponed for a day. Mr. Hawley wished to delay action upon it, so as to see what interest his constituents might have in it. Mr. Knox stated that he was informed that none of the stock was now owned in Waukesha.

DEAF AND DUMB ASYLUM—APPROPRIATIONS FOR CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

Out of Committee came the bill appropriating $52,000 for the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, $30,000 of it for the main building, to be paid in two years. Mr. Wakely moved to strike out the section for the main building, on the ground that the State could not afford to build it now. Mr. Moses M. Strong defended the appropriation, holding that this rich and growing State owes it to herself and to humanity to provide at once for the unfortunate who are dependent upon her. He argued that the surplus proceeds of the Swamp Lands could very well be appropriated to the erection of these institutions. Mr. Geo. Hawley wished for delay until an enquiry could be answered as to the amount of revenue from the Swamp Lands, after deducting the expense of drainage.

The bill was ordered engrossed, as it came from the Committee.

Give the Asylum $52,000—give the Blind Asylum $35,000 as called for—provide for the Lunatic Asylum ever so reasonable a sum—add the small contingent remainder necessary for enlarging the Capitol—do, by all means, in the name of humanity, let us have a House of Refuge and Reformation for delinquent, misguided children, instead of sending them to herd with hardened children in jails and prisons—and pay, nobody knows how much, for the completion of the State Prison, (and McGarry asks $27,000 for its support; why cannot that institution be made, under good management, to support itself?) I say now, look back and see what an expense here is! But, on the other hand, what of this expense can be justly spared? It does look large—it is large; but does not justice and humanity demand that these expenses be provided for, and that now? I confess that I don't know. I hope that somebody does, and that he will communicate of his wisdom to this Legislature.

The Assembly to-day had caught up with the Senate, and overtaken its committees, and cleared its table of all business. The Committees were at work in the afternoon, grinding out more work for the Assembly. We shall doubtless have some important bills up by to-morrow.

W. H. W.

Remonstrance of Milwaukee Gas Light Co.

ASSEMBLY PROCEEDINGS OF SATURDAY.

Mr. Reymert, on leave, presented the following remonstrance, which was referred to the Milwaukee delegation, and ordered printed:

To the Honorable, the Senate and Assembly of Wisconsin:

The undersigned, Directors of the Milwaukee Gas Light Company, respectfully represent:—That on the 27th day of March, 1852, an act was passed by the Legislature incorporating the Milwaukee Gas Light Company. Under this act a company was formed and the necessary works were erected, and the city lighted with gas within the time limited by the act of incorporation. Up to this time there has been expended in the erection and repair of the works and laying pipe, $218,432 89, Seven miles of main pipe have been laid in the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 6th and 7th wards, of which two miles are in the 2d and 4th wards. It is the intention of the company to lay not less than 5 miles of additional pipe during the coming season, of which 2½ miles will be laid in the 2d, 4th and 6th wards. It is now, and always has been the desire of the company to extend the means of lighting the city, as fast as the wants of the public may require.

The undersigned further represent, that on the 1st of June 1851, the city of Milwaukee entered into a contract with John Lockwood, whereby the city gave to him and his assigns, the exclusive right to make the necessary excavation, and to lay gas pipes through the streets of Milwaukee for the term of 15 years from the date of said contract, and the city further agreed not to grant such right to any other person or body politic during said term of fifteen years. This agreement was entered into before the act of incorporation was passed, and is referred to in, and made a part of said act of incorporation. It is unnecessary to remark, that unless this or a similar agreement had been entered into by the city, no person would have incurred the responsibility of constructing gas works. It was entered into in anticipation of the act of incorporation, and was subsequently assigned by Mr. Lockwood to this company.

The undersigned further represent, that they are informed that a bill is now pending in the Assembly to incorporate the Wisconsin Gas Light Company, and authorizing such company to erect gas works and to lay pipe on the west side of the Milwaukee river in the 2d, 4th and 6th wards.

The undersigned, for themselves and the stock and bond holders of this company, whom they represent, respectfully remonstrate against the passage of said bill.

This company, possessing the ability, and knowing it to be their interest to extend the means of lighting the various parts of the city as fast as may be required, no public or private necessity requires the incorporation of a new company to construct gas works in those wards.

The passage of this bill and the erection of gas works by virtue of the same would be a violation of the rights of this company guaranteed to them by the Legislature and the city of Milwaukee.

The principal part of the stock and bonds of this company is owned by eastern capitalists who invested in this company on the faith of the act of the Legislature and the agreement with the city of Milwaukee

The passage of the bill before you would tend to destroy confidence abroad in our public engagements and affect the value of securities issued and to be issued in aid of works of improvement within our State.

It is true that we may resort to the laws of the land to protect us in our just rights, but we submit that the Legislature has no right to drive us to this resort.

(Signed)
ELIPHALET CRAMER,
A. ELDRED, A. MITCHELL,
H. CROCKER, M. S. SCOTT.

Assuming the facts in the case to be truly stated in the above remonstrance—and the names signed to it forbid any other supposition—it is obvious that the incorporation of another Gas Light Company in this city would be in violation, not only, of existing rights, but of the plighted faith of our city and State. It is well urged by the remonstrants that such an act would destroy confidence abroad in our public engagements and render it difficult, if not impossible, to obtain any further supplies of foreign capital to carry on necessary works of improvement. Were no such contract in existence as the one alluded to in the remonstrance, it would then be a fair and proper question for the Legislature to consider whether public convenience, or public necessity, required the incorporation of another Gas Company in our city. And the policy itself might be matter for discussion, if we were now about to enter upon the construction of Gas Works for the first time. But all such considerations, in our judgment, are effectually precluded by the fact of the contract, deliberately entered into between the city and the Gas company in 1851, and formally ratified by the Legislature in 1852. A new charter would "impair the obligation," of that contract, and while it would subject our city and State to the stigma of bad faith, could have no force, or effect, since the Courts must necessarily pronounce it void

U. S. Senator.

Hon. Jas. R. Doolittle, of Racine county, has been elected as the successor of Gen. Dodge in U. S. Senate, evidently by votes which are void by express provision of our State Constitution. He will undoubtedly be admitted to his seat, and we do not regret his election inasmuch as no Democrat could have been elected. Judge D. we have considered one of the ablest men in the State, and if fanaticism, or sham-republicanism is to hold ascendency in Wisconsin, we will be pleased to see it represented by a man of some genius and a fair amount of brains.—La Crosse National Democrat.

The News will have to call its La Crosse yoke fellow "to order." This endorsing Judge Doolittle and scouting the idea that the U. S. Senate will refuse to receive him, is an exercise of "freedom of speech," which the party leaders and whippers-in will not tolerate in a democratic paper.

THE MILITIA OF THE UNITED STATES.—An exhibit of the militia of the several States and Territories, taken from the latest returns that have been received at the War Department, has been communicated by that department to Congress. The returns are by no means complete. There has been no return from Delaware since 1827, and from Maryland since 1838; and for several years from a number of other States. The aggregate number of men is 2,716,094. This, however, does not include the State of Iowa and the Territories of Oregon, Washington, Nebraska, Kansas and New Mexico. The highest number in any one State is in New York, reaching 337,285; the next 257,420 in Illinois, and the next 209,126 in California. Maryland had 46,864 in 1828, and Virginia 125,681 in 1854.

☞ We learn from the Waukegan Gazette of the 7th inst. that a young man named Jefferson Beckwith, a brother of E. Beckwith, of Racine, was accidentally killed at Waukegan on the 4th inst., while attempting to raise the schooner Two Charlies.

☞ Emile Spangenburg has been recognized as Consul of the Grand Dukedom of Baden, for the State of Wisconsin and Territory of Minnesota, to reside at Milwaukee.

THE FLOOD!

Bridges Swept Away. Warehouses Inundated, &c.

ILLINOIS RIVER.—The St. Louis Democrat of the 9th learns from Capt. Stockpole, of the Vienna, who arrived there on the 8th from Naples, that the Vienna had sunk in the Illinois.—It was that the ice, which was strong, and rushed along with great impetuosity, had raked her fore and aft, sinking her instantly. She was bound from St. Louis up the Illinois, and was lying at a point on the river four miles from the Mississippi, and had freight on board. Capt. S. says that the Illinois had risen ten feet at Naples, and was informed by a gentleman from La Salle that it had risen fifteen feet at that point.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER.—The steamer Chicago lies sunk at the foot of Captine, sixteen miles below Wheeling. She was on her way from Cincinnati to Pittsburg, with a valuable cargo of produce.

The Gen. Pike was cut down by the ice at Harrod's Creek, on the 6th. She was lying in shore, with some prospect of saving her.

The Superior was safe. The Memphis and her freight also safe.

The Queen of the West arrived at Evansville on the 8th from Cairo.—St. Louis Rep., 9th.

BUFFALO.—The high water has caused the ice to break up in Buffalo Creek, and the harbor above Michigan street was clear on Saturday.—The rush of high water and the running ice carried the schooner Flying Cloud and a canal boat from their moorings. The "break up" is unexpected and general, without any show of abatement up to the present writing.

On Saturday afternoon a fleet of canal boats moored in the Main and Hamburg street Canal, broke from their moorings, and came down in the vicinity of the Main street bridge with a rush. No serious damage done.

P. S.—Between 9 and 10 o'clock on Saturday evening, the ice went out of the Creek with a perfect rush. Very little damage was done to the shipping. The brig Constellation broke from her moorings and was carried down the creek, doing some damage to vessels which she came in collision with. She brought up at Dart's Elevator, and was safely moored in the Ship Canal.—Buffalo Express, 9th.

CLEVELAND.—Since 1832 the water in the Cuyahoga has never been at its present flood-side.—The ice commenced coming down in large masses yesterday morning, and gorging at every slight obstruction. It first encountered the structures and floats connecting Stone's Flats with Seneca street, but finally found its way to the old railroad crossing at Chapin's packing house, where it again lodged.

Great apprehensions that the new turntable bridge would be carried away caused a large force to be engaged by Mr. E. S. Flint, the Sup't of the C. C. & C. R. R., to remove the temporary structure which impeded the free passage of the ice. The rails were taken off, and the ice last evening carried it away with a tremendous crash. The ice then moved in great quantities to the lower bridges. The river still continued to rise, and had this morning reached a mark higher by six feet than it had attained yesterday morning. The ice being tightly packed at the mouth of the river, and packed in solid from the Lake up to the Centre Street bridge, the exit of this immense body of water is entirely precluded.—It spreads over thousands of acres of the Cleveland Centre and the West Side Flats. It has overflowed all the lumber yards, and carried away a large quantity of valuable stock now packed in with the ice.

The warehouses of Merwin and River streets were overflowed, and great damage done.

Hanna, Garretson & Co., have sugars, tobacco, &c., damaged to the amount of several hundred dollars.

Bishop & Co., have five or six hundred bbls of flour wet and destroyed.

The greatest damage done by the water, as yet, is in the warehouses. At Burton's on the West Side, 2000 bushels of oats and 1000 of potatoes are under water.

J. M. Cummings & Co, with a large force working all night, saved at least $10,000 worth of goods sugars, teas, &c., from total loss.—Cleveland Plaindealer, 7th.

SAW MILLS BURNT—HEAVY LOSS.—Our associate at Madison mentioned in one of his letters, a few days since, that the valuable and extensive saw mills at Menomonee, of which Senator Wilson was part owner, had been destroyed by fire. The Galena Gazette publishes the following extract from a letter, received in that city, giving some particulars of the disaster:

On Sunday morning, January 25th, about 5 o'clock, Knapp, Stout & Co.'s Saw Mill was discovered to be on fire, and by 9 o'clock the whole mill was destroyed. It is not known how the fire originated. The loss is great to the company and to the surrounding country. The damage will probably be one hundred and fifty thousand dollars."

ELECTION OF CHIEF ENGINEER, NEW YORK.—The Firemen of New York held an election for Chief Engineer on the 4th instant. Two candidates were in the field, ALFRED CARSON, present Chief, and H. H. HOWARD, one of the assistant engineers. There was a very spirited contest, and the vote, as finally declared, stood thus:

	Howard.	Carson.
Engine Companies	870	650
Hose Carts	549	512
Hook and Ladder	115	281
Hydrants	7	52
Board of Engineers	7	7
Total	1547	1502
Scattering		86
Howard over Carson		122
Howard over all		166

When the result was announced, the partisans of Howard fired a salute from a cannon planted in the street opposite the Institute. The salary of the Chief Engineer is $3000 per annum, and he is elected for a term of three years.

POST-OFFICE LITERATURE.—In view of the fearful work the guillotine is making, we suppose, says the Chicago Journal, the Postmaster at Huntley's Grove puts himself right upon the record by writing us the following note. We shall hope that our correspondent may be mistaken.—Mr. Wales is a whaler:

FEARFULLY BEAUTIFUL.—The Russian Princess, SOPHIE TROUBETSKOI, recently married to Count DE MORNY, is described as "fearfully beautiful." She was brought up at the Institution of the Imperial Maids of Honor, and the Empress Dowager wished to give her to the reigning Empress as one of her ladies; but the Empress MARIE said she would have nothing to do with her, for that she was "far, far too beautiful."

CARS AT PORTAGE!—We have the welcome intelligence that on Thursday the 5th inst. the construction train on the La C. & Mil. R. R. ran all the way to the depot at Portage, the passenger train having reached Pardeeville. The cars were expected two weeks ago, and would have been there, but for the unprecedented severe weather, when it was physically impossible to work upon the road. The heavy snow storm now falling will probably keep back the trains several days, after which we hope to have a regular connection with "the rest of the world, by our daily stage to Portage.—Baraboo Republic.

RIPON AND OSHKOSH R. R.—The Common Council of the city of Oshosh, have received the necessary securities, and will immediately issue the City Bonds to said Railroad Co.

We are heartily glad of this, for now the rich prairie country which lies around this place will be united with the great lumbering market of Wolf River. This road can be built with very little trouble, as the distance is short and, not many hills to pass through. We wait for the time when we can jump aboard the car and ride to Oshkosh, with no little anxiety.—Ripon Home.

WHY DIDN'T THEY ADOPT IT?—The following transactions occurred in the Senate yesterday afternoon which do not appear in the reports: the bill to preserve the purity of elections being under consideration, Mr. WHEELER move to amend one section relative to "imposing upon electors who could not read," making it a punishable offence to offer a ticket to such person. This was voted down.

Mr. COOK moved an amendment making it a punishable offence to offer a split ticket to any person.

Mr. CLARK favored the amendment. The Republicans were in the habit of peddling tickets headed Democratic, with "Shanghai names on it. He wished to protect the Democrats from such impositions.

Mr. GILES suggested that the members of the Democratic party would be very generally protected from such impositions if the amendment proposed by Mr. Wheeler was adopted.

Why didn't they adopt it?—Madison Journal.

Burdell Murder.

Amid much irrelevant testimony, taken before the Coroner's Inquest on Friday last, the 6th instant, the following, at least, is material, and will strengthen the general and growing conviction that ECKEL and Mrs. CUNNINGHAM were the instigators, or actors in the bloody tragedy.

Aleak Braisdell, of 16 Grand street, a liquor dealer in Broad street, testified to having known the doctor well; was a partner with him 6 years ago, corner of Broadway and Franklin street; had frequently visited his house, and the doctor talked much about his domestic affairs; told witness he had many quarrels with Mrs. Cunningham, and had great difficulty with her; also that Mrs. C. stole papers from him; witness told him to get rid of her, and the Doctor said that he intended to do as soon as he could; witness saw him on Friday last, when the doctor talked of his troubles again, and said his life was threatened by Mrs. Cunningham, Miss Augusta, Mr. Eckel, and Mr. Snodgrass; he said they all had threatened violence against him, and acted very strangely towards him; the hall door was often bolted against him, and the side shutters of the hall closed; when the Doctor remonstrated against such conduct the inmates said he ought to have his head broken; the Doctor further told him that he could not leave his room but they would unlock his door, and interfere with his papers; that they had opened his safe, and he was about to get a new lock for it. On Friday last he said they were in he habit of opening his door quietly when he was in the room and shutting it again when he would turn around; on this day he told witness that he wanted him to come to the house and remain there with him that night, as he was afraid; this was the night of the murder; he seemed melancholy that day; circumstances prevented witness from meeting the Doctor that evening at 31 Bond street, at 7 P. M. the time appointed; witness had been here at half past 1 and half-past 4 in the afternoon, and there were ladies with the Doctor then for professional services; Rev. Mr. Cox, was there at the same time and the Doctor told him of his uneasiness about his affairs; he had on the same clothes then that he was murdered in. Witness knew Dr. Burdell had a great many enemies chiefly on account of money matters, as he was very particular; but no one as he had heard outside of the domesties ever threatened his life; the last time he saw Dr. Burdell alive was at 4½ P. M. on Friday; Dr. Cox remained with him till 5 P. M.; Dr. Burdell told witness that he had made a will and left Mrs. Cunningham nothing.

Catharine Stansbury was then sworn, and said she resided at 46 Greenwich Avenue; had known Dr. Burdell for twenty years; had business relations with him, with regard to taking the house 31 Bond street after the 1st of May; the agreement was to have been signed on last Saturday morning; called last Friday and went through the house with Dr. Burdell; Dr. Cox was in the back parlor on the first floor; Dr. Burdell remarked to witness that it was a delicate business, meaning as witness thought, the ejection of Mrs. Cunningham on the 1st of May; it was agreed that witness's husband would call on the following (Saturday) morning to sign the agreement; this conversation was carried on in the parlor on the first floor, the folding doors and the door of the parlor opening upon the hall were open, and Dr. Burdell spoke in a rather loud tone of voice; he told the witness that if she would go out into the hall she would find "that woman," who, he told her, was "bad enough to do anything," listening at the door, or at the stairs; witness then turned to leave, and, on stepping from the parlor out into the hall, saw Mrs. Cunningham standing on the stairs listening; witness's husband would have called on Saturday morning to see Dr. Burdell, according to agreement, but was induced to postpone the visit until Monday, on account of the storm; witness first heard of Dr. Burdell's death on Saturday afternoon; her husband was reading a newspaper, when suddenly he turned to her and said that Dr. Burdell was dead—he had burst a blood vessel, so the paper stated; witness was astounded at the news, and told her husband she wouldn't wonder if he was murdered; and that she thought it very singular that that agreement was to be signed on Saturday morning, and Dr. Burdell died or was murdered on the night previous.

On Tuesday Miss A. CUNNINGHAM, the eldest daughter was examined. Her appearance and testimony, as far as taken, are thus described:

In a few moments the witness was ushered in by the officer, and there was a general rush of the standers-by to see her. She is a young lady of remarkable appearance; about the average height of women; she is well formed and has an admirably shaped head and handsome neck.—Her hair, which is light auburn, she wears combed plainly down to the face, and gathered in a knot behind. Her forehead is broad, her face nearly oval, her features regular, pleasing, and finely chiseled, nose slightly aquiline, and eyes clear light blue inclined to greyish. Her chin is well rounded and her lips thin and very beautifully cut. She wore an expression of the most obstinate and fixed determination, part of the time keeping her eyes cast down, her lips firmly compressed, and answered the questions of the examiner with great tact. At times she deliberated for some moments before replying, and to other questions she gave a ready, nonchalant and apparently off hand reply, without the least hesitation. She was dressed in a colored silk with a rich Russia Sable full mantle over her shoulders. She sat in the Dr.'s dental chair on being sworn, and the greatest interest was manifested in her testimony, which was proceeded with as follows:—

I am the eldest daughter of Mrs. Cunningham; my father has been dead two years last June; I was in Cleveland when my mother became acquainted with Dr. Burdell, about two years ago; he frequently called at my mother's house, but I can't say how often, as I was at a boarding school, and was home only once a week—so, that was every fortnight—once a fortnight.

After some unimportant evidence, the witness thus proceeded:

Q. Why, if, as if you have stated, you never knew of any difficulty with the Dr., did you ask her if she had?

Because she told me she wouldn't go near Mrs. Williams.

Recorder—Is that the only reason?

A. Yes, Sir.

Recorder—Now think over a few moments, and see how inconsistent your answer is. Why ask your mother frequently?

A. Because she refused to go to Mrs. William's.

Q. Why ask her more than once?

A. I did not ask her more than once.

Recorder—You said you asked frequently?

A. I asked several times, because I wanted to get an answer: the difficulty last Saturday week was this; my mother went down, and being absent too long, I went down to ascertain the cause; the door was locked, and the Dr. opened it and pushed me out; I rushed past and found my mother sitting at the Doctor's desk; nothing unpleasant occurred before that; she said she would not keep her marriage secret any longer; he had threatened my life if I should expose it, and I went down upon that point; I expressed to my mother the day previous that I didn't wish to live there any longer in this way; I often joked to me about having another father, but I never joked to him about the marriage, nor ever heard him speak of it in presence of any one.

Q. Then why do you say that he threatened your life if you should expose it?

A. He said so the night he was married; my mother was present; I don't know whether he said it in jest or earnest; but I asked him if I should tell it, and he said—"Augusta if you do I will take your life." I was at the marriage.

To the Coroner—He used this language in the street, after we came out of the minister's house.

To the Recorder—I have remained in this city ever since the marriage.

Q. Did your mother stay in town or go on an excursion?

Witness—(hesitating for some moments)—She went to Saratoga; the marriage took place 28th October; I remember it because he used to say "Gussy you remember 28th October"; it took place somewhere about 8 or 10 o'clock; no one was present but the minister and myself, the Doctor and my mother; we went there on foot; the Doctor said it was nonsense to spend money for a carriage (with a smile); the minister hadn't a certificate ready and the Dr. said he would call next morning. My mother said next morning; The Dr. has just brought in the certificate, I asked her to show it to me, and I read it; we and no more making as the Dr. did not wish anything of the kind—being very close in his means; my mother and the Dr. occupied the same room that night, and continued so till a month or two ago, when she came to my sister, who was sick; I knew she slept on that floor, but whether in the same bed room or not I don't know, for I never cared to ask any question about it. They did not occupy the same room previous to the marriage.

Q. After she left the room did she go back to it at all?

A—I think not; one or the other of us always slept with her after that, as we were occasionally ill; I saw no paper on the desk when I opened the door; the doctor pushed me out asking what business had I to come there? He always treated me kindly before, and I felt surprised; I didn't like it much; didn't care much as I knew it was his way; I never knew him to do that before, nor had known him to do things suddenly and be sorry for it afterwards; I never heard of any other difficulty of any kind between them before that; we generally retired between 9 and 11 at night.

Recorder—That's rather a wide margin.

Witness—Well, sir, it was nearer ten than eleven; I am a sound sleeper, although I am in delicate health.

Recorder (solto voce)—It is generally the case when persons are in delicate health that their sleep is disturbed.

Witness—I went to bed last Friday night, I am certain, between 10 and 11, and it was some time after that before I went to sleep; I was speaking to my sister about her going next morning; we all three slept in one bed, on the third story in front; never did so before; our door is always shut and locked; my sister was going to school.

Q. When did you first become acquainted with Mr. Eckel?

A. I can't recollect; it is about three months ago; I first saw him when he came to see mother regarding a room in the house which he rented from her.

Q. After you went up to your room did you go down again?

A. (hesitatingly) No, I did not.

Q. Did any body else?

A. Mother came down.

Q. When?

A. About 10 o'clock.

Recorder. Why, you did'nt go up till near 11.

Witness. She came up nearer 9 than 10, and went down near 10, to speak to the girl; she was down I should think half an hour; I did not go down after that to my knowledge; I never heard anything about a will having been made by the Doctor.

Q. Who went to sleep first on Friday night?

A. Mother went to sleep first; I think I went to sleep 10 or 15 minutes after; I am a sound sleeper; don't know if my sister is; I shouldn't think she was.

Q. There's a small room off from the garret in in the house is there not?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is it used for?

Witness. Which side do you mean?

Q. Is there more than one?

A. No, not on this side. Mr. Snodgrass used to occupy it. A fire was there last between Monday and Wednesday, for the purpose of our going in to dress. We told the girl to fix the grate so that it could be prepared to be lighted at any time. Messrs. Eckel, Ullman and the Doctor had night keys to the outer door, but no one else had, to my knowledge.

Arrival of the Santa Fe Mail—Wagons and Coaches left in the Snow—Kiowa Indians at War—Rent in danger—Mail Train Returned—Mr. Dodge not found—Reported Killed—Troops—Protection.

Wesport, Jan. 31.

At a late hour last night, the Santa Fe mail train arrived, or so much of it as held together. The passengers and mail was brought through on horseback, the conductor of the train having been compelled to leave the wagons behind. The mail was due on the 22d.

The train in charge of conductor Muse, left Santa Fe on the first of January, and arrived at Cottonwood on the 6th, where they encountered a snow storm which lasted till the night of the 7th. On the 8th they came upon old snow and, from that time, had to face severe northers, which drifted the snow, and blew in the faces of both men and passengers, so that all suffered intensely. It was frequently difficult to find the road, and often necessary to shovel snow away, and cut channels through the arroyas.

At the Willow Car of the Cimarone, the train passed seven lodges of Kiowas, consisting of boys, old men and women, who informed Mr. Buck, from whom I have obtained the interesting news herein contained, that the braves and warriors of the tribe had gone to Bent's Fort to "rub him out," in their expressive language. When onward bound Mr. Muse was told that the Kiowas intended to attack Bent. At the lower spring another body of Kiowas was encamped, and they said the same; so that unless the troops, which were sent to his aid, arrived in time to prevent it, Bent's Fort is now in ruins, and, perhaps, his remains lie under them. God forbid!

The train met with much difficulty in their progress from the Lower Cimarona Spring to the crossing of the Arkansas, which was passed over on the ice. The river was very low, and frozen to the bottom. The small wagon of the train was left between the Coon Creeks; and before they reached the Pawnee Fork, a terrible snow storm was encountered. The mules became weary and worn, the corn and other feed was out, and nearly all the provisions for the passengers and men had been consumed or lost; but fortunately, at the Pawnee fort, the January mail was encamped, and the conductor furnished Mr. Muse with provisions and corn. Hearing how unusually severe was the winter, and the difficulties and dangers of the trip, the conductor of the outward bound train returned with the one bound in, but both were compelled to leave the coaches at Walnut Creek, where they remain at present.

The passengers and mail were brought from that place to Council Grove in a small wagon, the former having to walk most of the way. From Council Grove they traveled to Westport on mule-back, which, doubtless, was a rather rough and tedious mode of getting along, as the mules were poor and jaded. Some of the passengers and men are pretty badly frozen. The passengers are Mr. Beck, of Santa Fe, Mr. Mandion of this place, Mr. Mose from Las Cruzas, and Mr. Shannon of the army, lately retired. The general news is highly interesting. Parties that went out to search for Mr. Dodge, the Indian Agent, carried into captivity by the Apaches, had returned without learning anything of his fate. It was reported by the Arkansa Indians that the poor fellow had been killed by the savages.

Col. Bonneville, Commander of the Military Department for New Mexico, sent detachments of troops on the 15th of December, to the rescue of Pent. Great anxiety was felt to know if they arrived in time to prevent the contemplated attack by the Kiowas.

Col. Loring, in Fort Union, had orders to move against them, should they begin hostilities.—There is but one way to stop their depredations, and that is to make war on the Indians and clean them out.

Interesting to Purchasers under the Graduation Act.

We learn, by a private note from the Hon. C. C. Washburne, that the following bill has passed the House of Representatives, and it will pass the Senate without doubt the present session.

Be it enacted by the Senate and the House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled.

That all parties of the public land under the act to graduate and reduce the price of the public lands to actual settlers and cultivators, approved fourth of August, eighteen hundred and fifty four, made prior to the passage of this act, in which the purchaser has made the affidavit and paid the purchase money, as required by said act, are hereby legalized, and patents shall issue to the parties, respectively, excepting those entries under said act act where fraud is or may be charged before the Commissioners of the General Land Office previous to the issuing of said patents; in which cases, patents shall not issue until it shall appear to the satisfaction of said Commissioner (after proper investigation) that said entries were made in good faith: Provided, That this act shall not be so construed as to confirm any of said entries which have heretofore been cancelled and vacated by said Commissioner, and the lands thus restored to market have been entered by another person.

The House has also passed a bill for the relief John Shaw of this State, appropriating $3,000 for services in the last war. This bill will also pass the Senate without doubt.—Madison Journal.

OUR MAILS.—By a late arrangement of Mr. Somebody, we have received no mail from Milwaukee since Saturday noon up to the hour of going to press—Tuesday evening—and we are hereafter to have it 10 o'clock P. M., if we are so fortunate as to receive it at all. By this arrangement the Milwaukee dailies are 24 hours old before they reach the subscribers in this city. This is reform with a vengeance. We shall have to petition the powers that be, to rig up the old stages to accommodate us with ordinary mail facilities.—Watertown Chronicle.

PRETTY PICTURE.—The domestic life of the French Imperial family is pictured by a newspaper correspondent who had a glimpse of it lately, in the garden of the Tuileries. The Emperor in a stout pea-jacket was amusing himself with and helping to amuse his infant heir, who sat smiling in a superb coach drawn by a couple of goats, magnificently caparisoned, and whose possible capidos were duly restrained by two dapper little grooms or pages with gold laced hats standing at the heads of the animals. The Empress herself looked down from a window upon the group, chatting and laughing with her Imperial spouse. High health, merriment, and perfect ease and security characterized the happy looking party.

A Kansas Sheriff.

Correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette.

LAWRENCE, KANSAS, Jan. 30, 1857.

Several attempts have been made by the bogus Legislature to compel Governor Geary to give a drunkard named Sherard, a commission to act as Sheriff in place of Samuel J. Jones, who resigned several weeks ago.

The Executive has always refused, and the Legislators have passed an act taking from him the power to give commissions, and accordingly Sherard is Sheriff of Douglas County. The new Sheriff sent a challenge to Dr. Brook, of Lecompton, to fight a duel. The doctor refused to fight any one but a gentleman. Sherard has posted him as a liar and a coward about the streets. There is so much decency about the Doctor to take any notice whatever, of the dirty dog, except to cowhide him on the highway.

A Woman the Cause of the Persian War.

The London Times, after referring to the general opinion that Herat is the cause of the Persian war, inquires:

* * * * * * *

But is Herat really the cause of the war? Why, at this very moment there is going on in this metropolis, and among all circles pretending to be well informed on political affairs, a farce, as broad as any that ever appeared on the stage.—While the newspapers and correspondents and officials, with patriotic decorum, are assuming that Herat is the cause of the war, there is not a company in which it is not stated as a matter of notoriety, that the real cause is that ridiculous quarrel about a Persian lady. As the quarrel has been related in the language of diplomacy, and it will soon be in the blue books, we need only repeat the principal fact, that the British Minister had the indiscretion to extend the British ægis to a lady of indifferent character, claimed to be a member of the Persian court, and on his refusing to give up the lady to the outraged feelings and the violated law of the country, had himself, as a matter of course, to retire from it.

We are told that first rate Oriental authorities, with a full knowledge of the case, have declared that the British Minister was unquestionably wrong, and that Persia had no alternative but to do as she did. Whether this be so or not, it is at least in everybody's mouth that it is not Herat, but a fair frail one who is the true cause of the war. The nation is saying one thing in public, and another in private; and while the broad sheet at breakfast proceeds on the solemn supposition that it is all about Herat, the talk of the dinner-table equally takes for granted that it is about a Persian courier's runaway mistress or wife, and the Quixotic protection extended to her by British officials. In fact, it is only another version of the old story—the primeval rupture between the Orientals and the Westerns.

But as the British public, fortunately for their own virtue and happiness, have not seen the lady in question, and only know of her attractions by hearsay, they can listen to reason, and ask whether this be indeed the cause of the war; and whether, if it be so, the British government is prepared to maintain that they have the right on their side, and that Persia was not justified in quarrelling with the Hon. Charles Murray? No one, of course, can reply to these questions with a tone of authority, except "from the book," and we do not pretend to know what has carefully been kept from our knowledge.—So we only say what we are told. We are told, then, on very good authority, that, as for Herat, the Persians have offered everything we could decently demand—to restore it to the Afghans, and to compound to the inhabitants of that place for losses by the seige. We are assured they declare their wish to be on the best terms with us, but that our government makes a point of resisting all their overtures unless they will also be

Gough at "the Albany."

Our readers are reminded that JOHN B. GOUGH, one of the most interesting and eloquent speakers in the country, lectures at the Hall of "the Albany," this evening, commencing at 8 o'clock. The Hall is admirably adapted to the purposes of a Concert, or Lecture Room, and will be amply and comfortably provided with seats. As Mr. Gough speaks but twice here, prior to his departure for the East and Europe, the opportunity of hearing him should not be lost.

HOWLAND'S NEW FIRE ENGINE.—We learn that Mr. HOWLAND, despairing of getting his price for the new and powerful machine which he built for Engine Co. No. 6 of this city, proposes to ship the machine to Chicago and sell it to one of the Engine Companies there. We should be sorry to see this capital engine lost to our Fire Department.

AN EXPRESS ROBBER ARRESTED.—A man named Horatio Snow was arrested on Monday night last, in this city, by officers Page and Beck, upon a charge of having stolen a package of money containing $140 from Cooley's Express on the 30th ult. We understand that a portion of the identical money stolen was found upon his person at the time he was arrested.

THE MASQUERADE.—The Masquerade at "the Albany," last evening, drew a perfect jam and for several hours the vast Hall was filled to overflowing with maskers and spectators. The music was very fine; the costumes various; many of the characters most amusing; and the whole affair entirely successful.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—Mr. HIRAM WARNER, the Treasurer of the Milwaukee Musical Association, requests us to acknowledge the receipt, by him, of $51.75, the avails of the Tom Paine Festival; the money was paid by the German Turn Verein.

BANK LOCKS.—SCHUMACHER & JOHNSON, in our advertising columns this morning, call attention to their excellent Bank Locks.

NATURE OF AN OATH.—In the County Circuit Court of St. Louis, a few days since, a colored man was on trial for larceny, a small white boy was called as a witness for the prosecution. The traverser's counsel asked him:

"Boy, do you know the nature of an oath?"

Witness replied:—"Yes sir—to swear agin the nigger."

Traverser's Counsel—"That will do. Swear him—that is the best definition of a State's witnesses' opinion of the nature of an oath I ever heard."

A roar of laughter followed from the bar and the spectators, and the case proceeded. So says the Republican.

Owner Wanted.

The Sexton of the Presbyterian Church in this city found in one of the aisles of that church last Sabbath a splendid wholesome hoop, which the owner can have by proving properly and paying for this notice. To the Editor of the Sentinel:—

DEAR SIR:—We notice an advertisement in your paper, over the signature of Messrs. Berliner & Brune, recommending their Bank Locks and Vault Doors to the public—and referring especially to the State Bank, and Farmers' and Millers' Bank. Now the only inference to be drawn from said advertisement is, that Messrs. Berliner & Brune manufactured and furnished the locks to be placed upon the vault doors of the new State Bank; when the contrary is the fact. We have received orders from Messrs. Scott & Babcock, members of the Building Committee, to furnish them with our Combination Locks, manufactured by one of our firm, Mr. Johnson, which we have completed and are only waiting their orders to put them up. We would also take this opportunity to invite the public to call and examine the same at our place of business, and in recommending them refer in an especial manner to the officers of the State Bank.

DRY GOODS,

Of Messrs. Brown, Jones and Robinson, will continue at the old stand, and embrace to the trade the first premium at the Ohio State Fair, 1856, over all other mills, and during the last three years has taken the first premiums over many others in the State Fairs of Ohio, New York, Tennessee, Michigan and Minnesota, also, at the County Fairs of the following Counties of Ohio and Indiana, viz: Guernsey, Crawford, County, Medina, Ashland, Wayne, Knox, Montgomery Clark, Erie, Lorain, Richland, Plymouth district, Chester, Frederick. In Indiana, Tippecanoe, Marion, Wayne, Fayette, Shelby, Jennings, Warren and Fountain.

Farmers, Saw Mill owners, Livery Stable men and all others, call and examine stock of any kind are invited to examine the merits and superior advantages of the above mill.

The Young America will grind as much corn in the cob, shelled corn, oats, barley, and all other grains for stock as any mill of the same size and with much less draft.

What we claim is great strength, durability and simplicity, being so simple that a child can learn to grind with safety.

In the next we claim the small expense to renew the grinding parts of the mill, and the ease with which the grinders are put on the mill, as a set of nut over three collars, which makes it superior and more economics than any other mill. The grinding parts of the above mill are made of the hardest of cast iron, as hard in fact as cast steel. Each set will grind from 4,00 to 5,00 to 10,000 bushels of grain, with proper usage. Besidesthe set of grinders on the mill, an extra set will be sent with each mill sold, making it equal to two common mills. When found necessary to change the grinders, almostany one can do it in twenty minutes.

As a proof of the estimation in which the Young American is held in Ohio, we would state that during the fall, winter and spring of 1855–56, 2500 were made and sold in Ohio, at Zanesville, by Douglas Smith & Co., Hall & Allen of Mansfield, Eldridge & Fassemer of Cincinnati, and at New Philadelphia.

At this time there is not less than 200 being sold every week in Ohio, at retail, besides those sold in other states east and west.

The above mill is being manufactured and can be furnished
